TRUST PRESS IS TRYING TO BLOCK HOYNE'S WAR ON TAXDODGERS

*Newspapers Openly Advocate Violation of Revenue Laws—How Grand Jury Secrets Got to the Newspapers—State's Attorney Hoyne Issues
Statement for the Public*

A statement today by Maclay Hoyne, state's attorney of Cook county, in effect accuses the Chicago newspaper trust of trying to wreck the whole machinery of law and courts in Cook county.

Secret connections which some of the trust newspapers have made with the grand jury are touched on by Hoyne. Three State street department store men are on the jury, four members have big jobs with railroads, and others have big business jobs and associations.

The indictment of Julius Rosenwald, the Sears-Roebuck millionaire, and the writing of Rosenwald's name in the same book as the indicted thieves and burglars of Chicago has started a fierce campaign against Hoyne. Also the promise of Hoyne that more big rich men who have violated the tax laws will be indicted makes a situation where the trust press is fighting the state's attorney. Hoyne's statement today says:
